

5C Mission – To make a difference in our community through initiatives and education.

5C - Clayton County Community Collaboration Council
April Meeting Minutes 4/10/17

Attendees (Meeting): Claudia McCalley (Volunteer), Tracy Yelden (Substance Abuse Agency), Adam Sadewasser (Substance Abuse Agency), Thomas Purcell (Substance Abuse Agency), Merry French (Substance Abuse Agency), Brian Berger (Law Enforcement), Rachael Hach (Substance Abuse Agency), & Marvin Duff (Volunteer)

The group reviewed the meeting packet and current funds. The community coalition grant is up again to apply. The coalition discussed applying and what could be the focus. The group identified a need in the community for the alcohol compliance check funding. The focus may be on off-premise sales. Merry will send out the application overview and ask for input on items that the coalition could focus on by April 21st. Please send responses to Tracy to compile. The group also discussed 5C logo decals which could be used to promote 5C in various ways. Marvin motioned to approve the purchase of decals (up to $50), 2nd by Brian, motion passed. Marvin mentioned that next year the coalition could think about sponsoring a gift bag for local Easter egg hunts at local towns. Rachael will add the event to the calendar.

The group continued with the training on coalition capacity building. Highlights including the Strategic Prevention Framework, logic models (or our road map), review of members and potential members, skills of members, organizational chart, & breakdown of member responsibilities. Thank you to everyone that was able to participate in the day's activities.

Event/Meeting Summary

Neighborhood Night Out Meeting – 3/15/2017 - Present: Claudia McCalley, Julie Doeppke, Brian Berger, Adam Sadewasser, Gerry Frick, Kari Harbaugh, Tracy Yelden, & Rachael Hach. The event is set from 6-8pm at Elkader (Founders Park) on August 8th & Monona (City Park) on August 10th. Activities include: bike safety, 4-wheeler safety?, gun locks?, prescription drop off, cop car tour, fire safety, ambulance, & talks on home invasion, K-9 demo, and drug indicators. More discussion will take place on food, community groups to partner with, other fun activities, and giveaways. The Goal of the event: Fun night out with community to meet and mingle with law enforcement, fire, and emergency management.

Hidden In Plain Sight– Outside of Clayton County – West Delaware had over 75 participants, Mac Valley had over 60 participants. All attendees said they learned something from the exhibit and would recommend this experience to others. Thank you to Helping Services for Youth and Families for renting the materials to reach more people in our area.

Directional Signs with Drug Facts – 3/18/17 – The signs were used at the Osborne 5K with 70 participants from 730-11am. They did note that a few more LEFT signs would be helpful.

Coalition Collaboration 3/21/2017

Ambassadors from the 5C Coalition met with 7 members of the Camanche Dewitt Coalition in Dubuque on March 21, 2017. This informal gathering is the third meeting between the two groups. During the discussion, the C-D Coalition expressed gratitude and thanks for having shared the concept of the “Hidden In Plain Sight”. After viewing the 5C HIPS, the C-D Coalition developed their own exhibit and have been using it during the past few months. The group discussed events and activities in each of the coalitions and shared ideas on implementing new things. The Camanche-Dewitt coalition and 5C members in attendance plan to continue this networking opportunity in the future.

Mannequin Challenge 3/23/2017 & 3/27/2017 – Present: Claudia McCalley, Matt Moser, Kari Harbaugh, Chad Harbaugh, Mandy Ludovissy, Tracy Yelden, & Rachael Hach. A committee met to discuss the development of a mannequin challenge where video clips will showcase decisions and choices regarding underage drinking. If you have an interest in participating, contact Matt Moser.

Grant Reports

Tobacco - Adam Sadewasser - MFL SODA groups continues to meet on a monthly basis. May 11th is the annual 4th grade safety fair at the Clayton County Fair Grounds. Adam will present on the dangers of tobacco products.

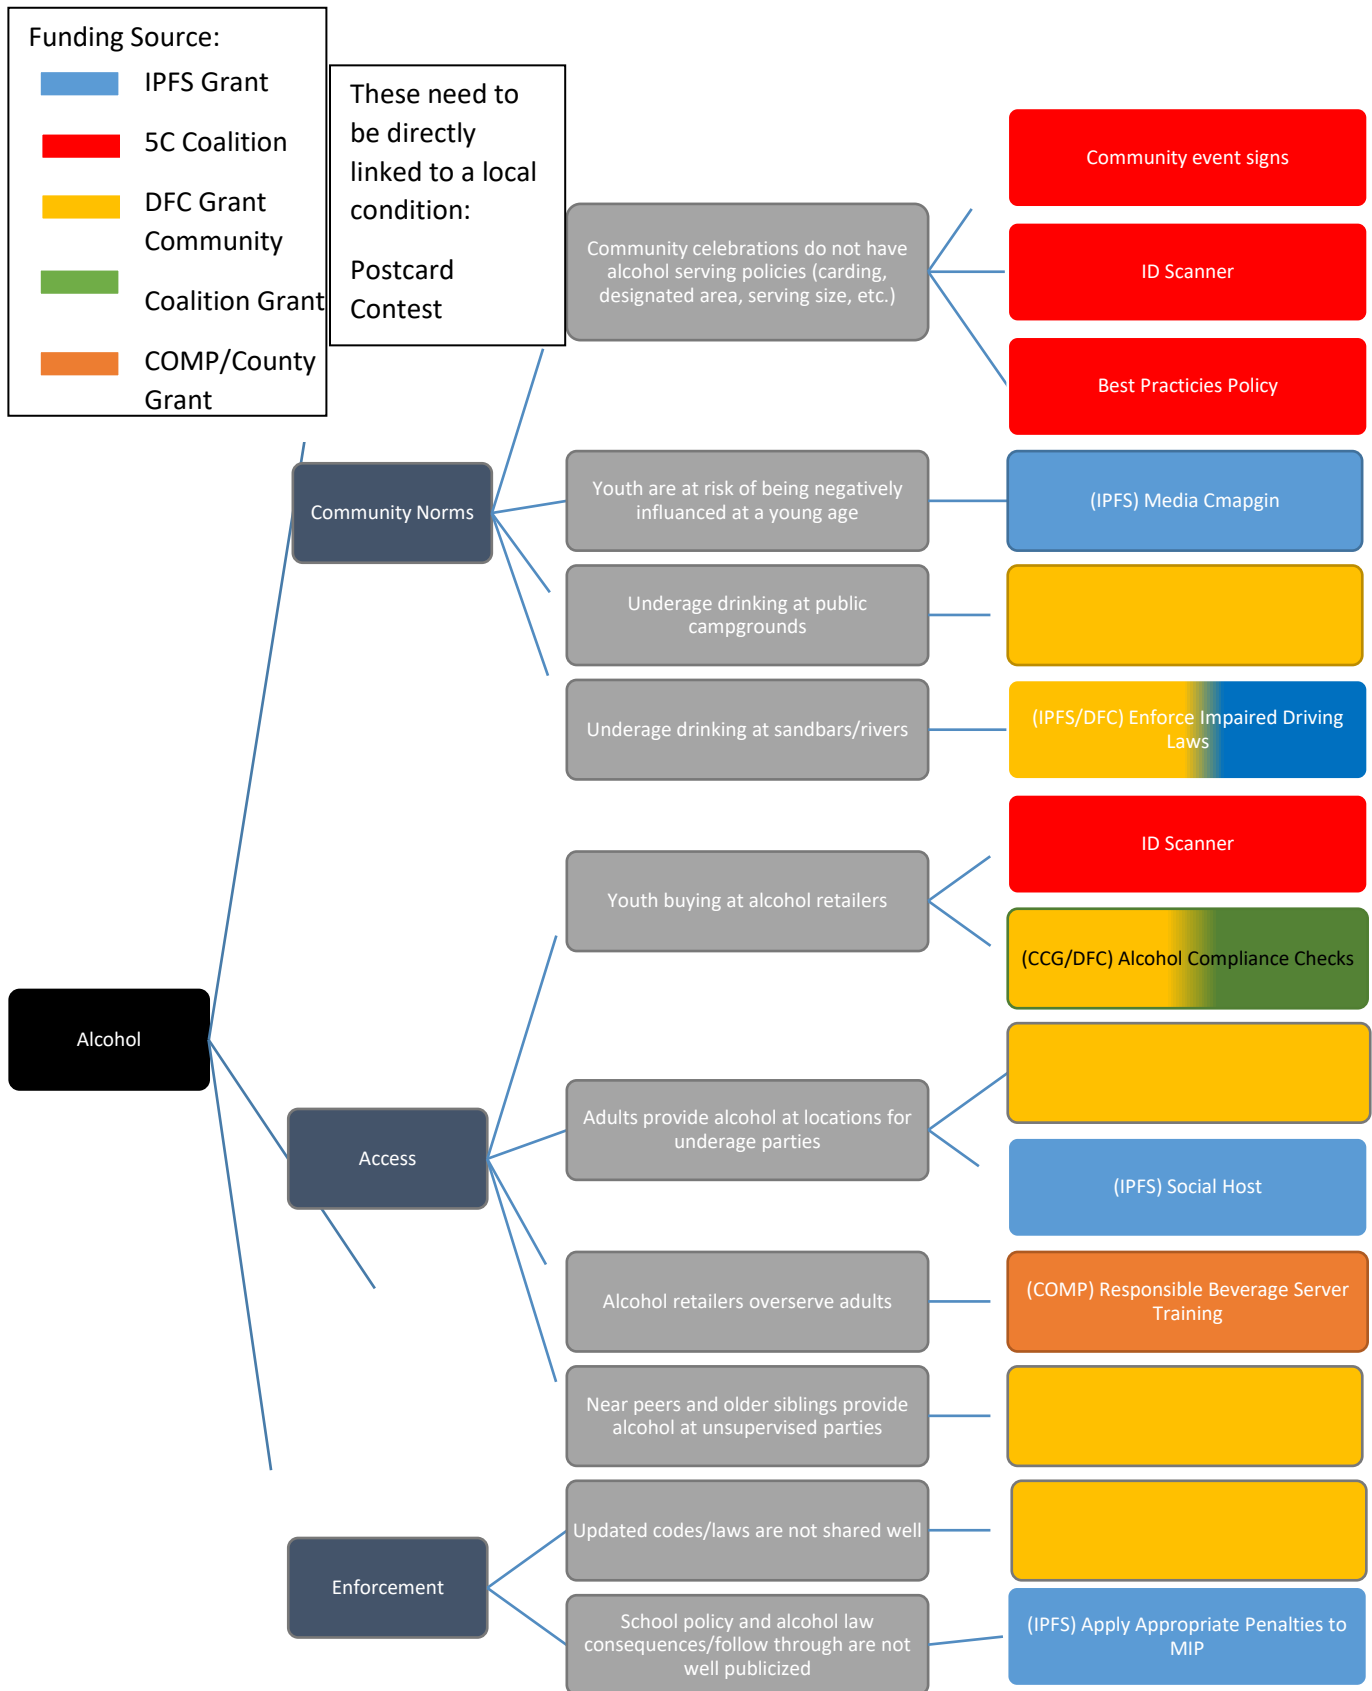

Pregnancy prevention/CAPP – Adam Sadewasser - Class are being taught at Clayton Ridge, Central Elkader and scheduled at Starmont.

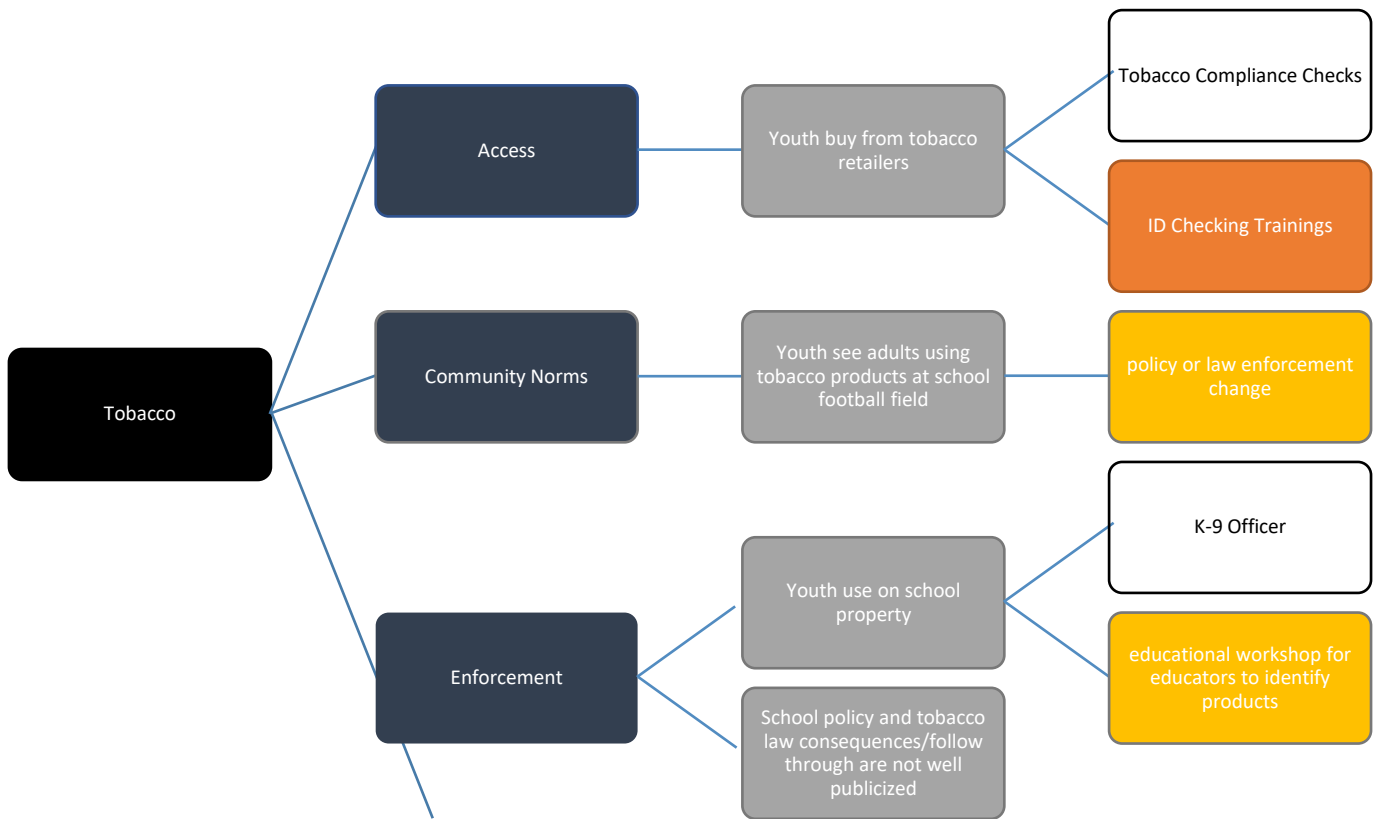

Community Coalition Grant – Tim Engelhardt (Clayton County Sheriff’s Office) completed 8 alcohol compliance checks –all passed. Certificates will be delivered in April.

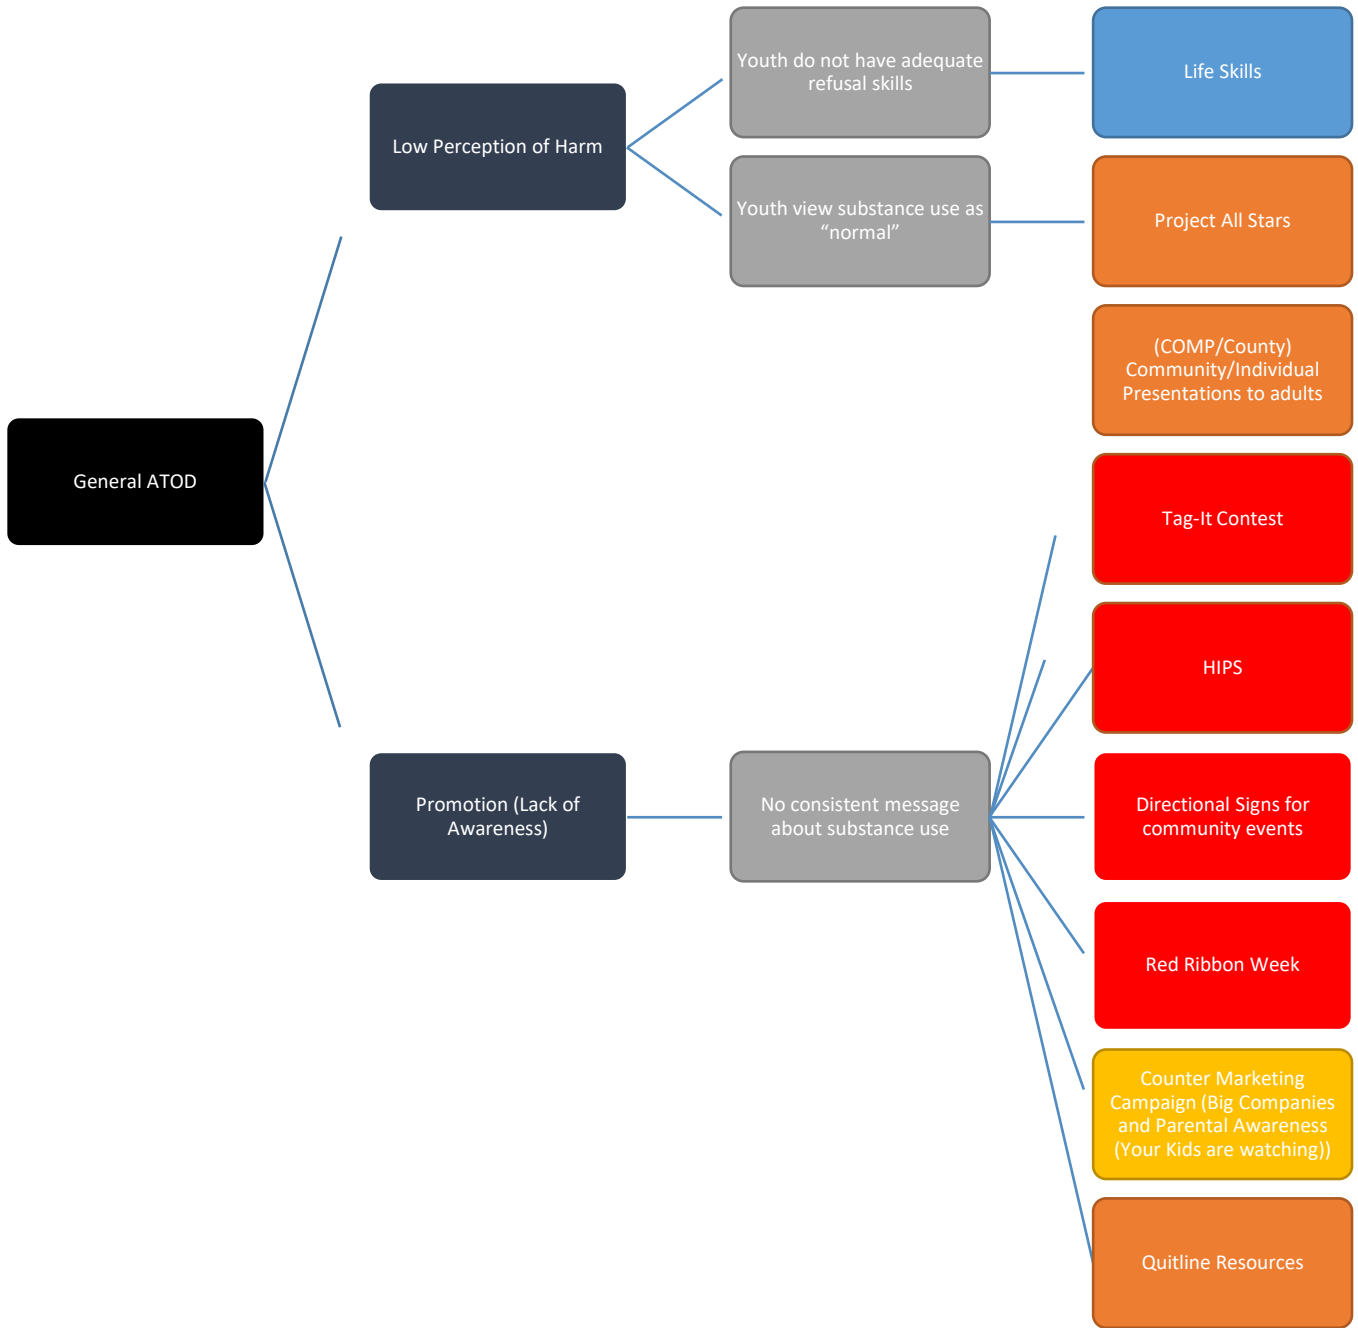

Iowa Partnership for Success (IPFS) - Rachael Hach - Starmont 6th grade students finished up the LifeSkills Curriculum. A formal fidelity check was completed to provide feedback and to ensure programming was completed overall with fidelity. This quarter we had 18 walkthroughs completed with help from the Guttenberg Police Department and the Clayton County Sheriff's Department. There weren't any issues with underage consumption during these walk throughs, and establishments were provided New Hire ID Brochures as a quick reference for checking ID's. A meeting was completed with the Clayton County Sheriff's Department regarding the implementation of Saturation Patrols and Safety Checkpoints, implementation of the patrols is set to start in the early summer months. Social Host table tents were distributed at the Drug Trends Training, as well as posters for the IDPH Media Campaign. Starmont Students helped put "What Do You Throw Away When You Drink" stickers on popcorn bags in support of Alcohol Awareness Month. There continue to be Media Campaign posters available if anyone would like to help distribute around the county.

Drug Free Communities (DFC) Grant – Tracy Yelden – Youth IMPACT Group has been meeting to plan next events (April drug facts and canned food donation box). An initial planning meeting with John Bell from the Sheriff's Office took place to discuss saturation patrols on the river this summer, more information to come. A Drug Trends community speaker was held on March 23rd at Garnavillo where a representative from the Iowa Division of Narcotics Enforcement spoke with community members on current drug issues and trends. March 27th 5C (with the help of DFC funds) helped sponsor a motivational speaker to talk with Clayton Ridge students.
